

Graduating Class of 2007

On June 3, Swarthmore College awarded 353 degrees to 348 graduates. Five students earned both the BA and the BS, similar to last year (6).

| | Women | Men | Total |
|-----------------------|--------------|------------|--------------|
| African American | 18 | 10 | 28 |
| Asian American | 29 | 19 | 48 |
| Latino/a American | 24 | 7 | 31 |
| Native American | 0 | 2 | 2 |
| White American | 87 | 84 | 171 |
| Non-Resident Alien | 5 | 14 | 19 |
| Other, Mixed, Unknown | 24 | 25 | 49 |
| Total | 187 | 161 | 348 |

Consistent with recent years, 54% of the graduates were women. The proportion of graduates who were members of minority groups was 31%, up from a drop last year (27%) and back to a level similar to earlier years. Five percent were non-resident aliens. Over half (53%) of the students had at least one major in the Social Sciences, 25% were in the Humanities, and 35% were in the Natural Sciences and Engineering. Another 7 percent of the majors were interdisciplinary. (Totals sum to more than 100% because students may have majors in more than one division.)

* A student with two majors each in a different division will be counted in both divisions, and so the total of the divisions may exceed the number of graduates. (If a student has two majors, both in the same division, they are counted only once.)

Two hundred seventeen graduates earned 252 minors, 103 in Honors, and 149 in Course. A third of the students earned some form of Honors, 45 with Honors, 59 with High Honors, and 11 with Highest Honors. (See historical data presented on the last page of this summary.)

The proportion of graduating seniors who have studied abroad continues to be between a third and a half. In the Class of 2007, 41% of the students had studied abroad, the same proportion as in the Class of 2006.
